Genesis 1-2

August 19, 2018

1.5: And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

1.8: And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

1.12: And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

1.19: And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

1.23: And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

1.31: And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

2.1-3: Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array. By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work. And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

App:

1. By faith (trust) in Jesus Christ

Matt 11.28-30: “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

2. By faith (trust) Christ's righteousness

Rom 4.3-6: What does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.” Now when a man works, his wages are not credited to him as a gift, but as an obligation. However, to the man who does not work but trusts God who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness.

David says the same thing when he speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works...:

3. By faith (trust) in Christ's faithfulness

Heb 4.8-11: For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day. There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God; for anyone who enters God's rest also rests from his own work, just as God did from his. Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following their example of disobedience.
